Pastor's Peace:

Dear First Christian Church family,

The calendar once again turns to another year. We enter this new year with much anticipation of what 2026 will bring for this faithful congregation. The book of Ecclesiastes reminds us that 'For everything there is a season and a time for every matter under heaven'. (Ecclesiastes 3:1)

None of us know for certain what the next season in the life of this church will look like exactly. We do know that it will look different than it did fifty years ago, ten years ago, and yes, even different than in 2025. Change happens and it is indeed inevitable. How we prepare for change and how we choose to respond can make all the difference in the world.

For the past eighteen months I have witnessed a faith community coming to terms with the understanding that things are very different than they once were. At the same time, I have appreciated your willingness to accept the need for change while also continuing to be a consistent gathering of Disciples committed to finding ways to be Christ to one another and to those beyond the church building. I encourage all of you to keep your eyes, your ears, and your hearts open to new possibilities and directions.

The prophet Isaiah shared words of divine inspiration that are as relevant today as when they were first given: "I am about to do a new thing; now it springs forth; do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." (Isaiah 43:19)

Our season together is soon coming to a close. I consider it a true blessing to have served as your interim minister for this part of your congregational journey. We may not have accomplished everything we had hoped for. For the areas where I may have fallen short, or 'stepped on toes', or 'ruffled feathers' please understand it was never intentional to hurt or diminish anything or anyone. Part of doing transitional work is to help congregations consider ways of being church a bit differently for new seasons while remaining ever faithful to the timeless truth of the Good News.

While I conclude my interim ministry here in Mansfield on Sunday, January 25, I hope you know that you will always remain within my heart and in my prayers for your continued journey forward.

As Jesus was preparing to leave his earliest followers he shared with them a blessing. May you hear and receive hope from these words for yourselves and for the future of what is to come with your next season.

"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid." (John 14:27)

In all things with love!

Pastor David

Outreach ~ Christmas

January 4th the Christmas decorations will come down and be put away until next year; however, you can still bring hats, gloves, mittens, scarves and socks and leave them in the box at the front entrance. (We really need more warm socks). These will be shared with those who need them at our January 17th Community Breakfast.

Christian Builders Adult Sunday School will begin a study entitled "The Twelve Disciples." Come at 9:30 and learn why our church is also called "Disciples of Christ."

Our New Path Forward

Advent / Christmas / Epiphany season offers FCC an opportunity to look back at the past, celebrate the present, and especially look for where we will be in the future. God call each of us, individually and collectively, to seek God's vision for 2026. May we all be blessed as we move into God's future....

Blessings and Love,

Jane Stout

Doris Reece Obituary

Mansfield: Doris Marie Reece passed away peacefully surrounded by her loved ones on Monday, December 8, 2025. She was 97.

She was born on September 26, 1928 in Flint, Michigan to the late Halden H. and Marceta (David) Harris. After graduating from high school, Doris went on to receive her degree in social work from Ohio University, where she also met her husband Alvin Reece. The couple shared nearly 72 years of marriage together until his passing in 2022, now they are together again.

Doris was a longtime member of the First Christian Church in Mansfield, where she served as a deaconess, the wedding reception coordinator, church librarian, as well as a Bible School teacher and leader of many women's devotional groups. Professionally, she worked for many years as an Assistant Librarian for the Madison Schools, primarily at the old junior high school and Madison South. In her spare time she was an avid reader, particularly anything in the historical romance genre, as well as sitting down with a good crossword puzzle. Doris and Alvin also enjoyed taking bus trips, visiting the Outer Banks, and walking all three parks at Disney World. Above all else though, she loved spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

She is survived by her two daughters Marsha (Tim) Hoover and Terry Swanger, four grandchildren Jason (Heather) Hoover, Joshua Hoover, Ben (Allison) Swanger and Erin Swanger, twelve great grandchildren Mackenzie, Brooklynn, and Aubrey Hoover, Tristan Jones, Griffin Hoover, Kyle, Aiden, Dylan, Easton, and Trinity Swanger, and Aubriella and Aryanna Taylor, and sister-in-law Nellie Parker.

The Reece family will receive guests on Friday, December 12, 2025 from 10 am to 10:30 am in the Snyder Funeral Homes, Marion Avenue Chapel, where a funeral service honoring her life will begin immediately after. Rev. Zerby will officiate. Burial to follow in Mansfield Cemetery.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Mansfield First Christian Church or to the Richland County Dog Shelter.

The family would like to extend their gratitude to the staff at Wedgewood Estates and Hospice of Western Reserve for their exceptional care of Doris.

From Your Church Secretary, Sandy

Hello 2026!!!

◇ Hey, Hey, Hey, Can you believe it is 2026!!!! Yes, we will all turn a year older in 2026 and we will continue our many outreach programs in 2026 as we continue to look for our part-time settled minister.

□ As you begin to bring Hygiene Kits or the items for them, put them on the table in the lounge and we will then take down into Fellowship to the cupboard until time for the Sarah Group ladies to put them together and pack them away. We hope to be able to have 100 again, as they are much needed and used all around the US and the world.

□ The new 2026 Sign-Up Sheets are on the table in the Nave just outside the Sanctuary ~ help with Community Breakfast, Serve as a Greeter, Serve as a Lay Leader, Help prepare Communion, serve as a Diaconate, sign up for the I-Connect Use of Smart/Cell Phones &/or the Chair Exercises (invite a friend to come) ~ Please stop by and sign up where you best can!!!!

□ IMPORTANT: Community Breakfast workers ~ Please continue to make things easier for the Community Breakfast Shoppers by writing on the white board what supplies that are needed for the next month breakfast. The white board is on the door of the supply room!!!

The February 2026 Quest deadline will be: Tuesday, January 27th for Committee meetings, Notices, Photos, Articles, etc ~ Quest will be emailed & mailed Thursday, January 29th!
